

ONTARIOPOWER GENERATION

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, LAW & GENERAL COUNSEL

GENERATE a future of possibilities

As one of North America's leading electricity producers, Ontario Power Generation (OPG) offers challenging opportunities and career diversity in a work environment where safety is a fundamental value - and where you can realize your personal and professional goals.

OPG is seeking a seasoned business lawyer to join its Executive Leadership Team in Toronto as Senior Vice President, Law & General Counsel. Reporting to the President and CEO, the successful candidate will manage and lead OPG's legal department, act as the key legal advisor on all major business transactions, and provide strategic and tactical advice to the President and CEO on all company matters involving legal issues.

The ideal candidate will have a minimum of 15 years of broad legal experience with a particular focus on corporate/commercial, corporate governance, regulatory and litigation matters gained from a law firm or corporation. Experience in the energy sector or another highly regulated industry involving rate regulation will be considered a key asset. The successful candidate will also have experience effectively leading and managing a team of lawyers. As a trusted advisor to the Executive Leadership Team and the CEO, solid judgment and business acumen are essential to the role, as is the ability to find the appropriate balance between legal expertise and business judgment.

If you have the requisite experience, please contact in complete confidence Carrie Heller or Steve Dykstra of The Heller Group to learn more about this exceptional opportunity.
