Tim Hortons®

Tim Hortons Inc. ("Tim Hortons®") is an iconic Canadian brand. Since opening its first restaurant in Hamilton, Ontario in 1964, Tim Hortons® focus on top quality, always fresh premium coffee and food offerings, value, exceptional service and community leadership has allowed the chain to grow into the largest quick service restaurant chain in Canada with more than 3,000 stores across the nation and over 500 locations in the United States. Tim Hortons® trades on the TSX and the NYSE.

Tim Hortons® is seeking a senior corporate/securities lawyer to join its legal team at its Oakville, Ontario head office. Reporting to the Deputy General Counsel and Secretary, the successful candidate will be responsible for a variety of corporate and securities related matters including preparing and reviewing public disclosure documents, monitoring securities regulatory requirements, corporate governance, compliance, corporate secretarial functions, commercial agreements, financings and other complex commercial transactions. Senior Counsel will also manage and coach a small team of lawyers and work extensively with support personnel.

The ideal candidate will have 7 to 10 years of broad corporate and securities experience gained at a leading law firm and/or public company. Experience with U.S. securities laws and financial expertise will be considered assets. The successful candidate will be business-minded and team-oriented with exceptional legal, communication and organizational skills.

Recently ranked in Canadian Business Magazine as having the "Best Corporate Reputation in Canada", Tim Hortons® offers a comprehensive total rewards package that includes a competitive salary, incentive plan, equity compensation, pension plan, company paid benefits, career growth, and workplace programs to meet employee needs.

If you are interested in exploring this exceptional opportunity, please contact in complete confidence Steve Dykstra or Carrie Heller of The Heller Group.
