Achievers is seeking a driven and business-minded US qualified corporate/commercial lawyer to join its team. The successful candidate will be responsible for drafting and negotiating complex commercial and technology agreements and will work closely with the business teams to advise on regulatory requirements and risk matters. You will be confident in suggesting improvements and innovative solutions and must possess strong communication skills in order to engage effectively with internal and external clients.

The ideal candidate will have 4 to 7 years of experience with corporate/commercial transactional matters and a strong understanding of technology matters including drafting and negotiating SaaS, subscription, and vendor agreements. Candidates must also have an in-depth understanding of privacy and data protection matters, including experience with HIPPA and BAAs, ideally coming from an in-house environment. This role will suit a self-starter who is adaptable and has proven relationship-building skills.

Achievers provides remote working options and enjoys a stellar global reputation. This is an exceptional opportunity for a candidate with strong business acumen to join a top employer and work at the forefront of the industry.
