

SOLICITOR

With its community feel, easy access to Toronto and the Niagara Escarpment and Lake Ontario right in its backyard, it's easy to see why so many people choose to live and work in the City of Burlington. The city offers world-class urban amenities, including shopping and dining and is home to some of Ontario's top festivals and events. It also boasts great employment opportunities, with a focus on teamwork, collaboration and support to its employees. Burlington is now looking for people whose skills reflect their values and can be progressive dynamic members of a high performing team.

Solicitor

City of Burlington is seeking a lawyer with at least 3 years of experience to join its team as Solicitor. The ideal candidate will have experience in municipal law with a focus on commercial agreements, as well as agreements relating to complex IT projects and freedom of information and privacy legislation. Familiarity with procurement standards applicable to municipal governments will be considered an asset. Reporting directly to the City Solicitor, the successful candidate will have strong interpersonal skills and will be able to provide clear, concise and practical advice within the required deadlines. This is an exciting, fast-paced opportunity in a supportive and balanced work environment.
