Sun Life

Sun Life's roots run deep in Canada, where our company began more than 150 years ago. Today we are an industry leader touching the lives of millions of individuals and thousands of companies across the country – and many more millions of clients around the world. Our goal is to attract and keep the best people in the industry by empowering our employees to do the right thing for one another and for our clients. We provide an environment where individual contribution is rewarded and teamwork is encouraged, where objectives are clearly defined and where our core values are always front and centre.

Sun Life Capital Management (SLC) is seeking an experienced derivatives lawyer to join its collegial in-house legal team. The successful candidate will work closely with SLC's derivatives and bond investment teams on a variety of exciting matters. You will be proactive and possess excellent communication skills in order to build strong relationships with both internal and external stakeholders.

The ideal candidate will have at least 5 years of experience drafting and negotiating derivatives-related documentation, as well as some familiarity with derivatives regulatory requirements. Exposure to repurchase and securities lending agreements and other investment management law experience would be considered an asset. This is an excellent opportunity to take on a varied role that will include challenging work on sophisticated, global matters.

Sun Life offers excellent benefits, including remote working options, as well as strong career development opportunities.
